

Health & Medical Requests

NEW/UPDATED

Danielle Primm - After having an appointment with a gastroenterologist on Monday, Danielle will be stepping away from college for now to get her condition under better control. Please pray that the school will drop the courses and let her completely retake them next fall when she returns. Also pray that she would strengthened physically, emotionally and spiritually. It will be difficult for her to come back home, but she knows that it is best. (11/18)

Jim Huizinga - His chemo treatment is over for now; however, he is experiencing significant side effects from the treatment. Jim had a chest X-ray yesterday and it revealed that he is getting pneumonia in his upper right lung. The doctors are starting him on Vancomycin to help counteract it. He is still fighting shingles and the foot infection. He does not have any immune system or neutrophils. He is running a temp and is extremely tired. Continue to keep Jim and the family in your prayers. Also pray that he does not have serious complications from the strong antibiotics he is on. (11/18)

Don Allen - He is still experiencing extreme back pain from his back surgery. (11/18)

Denise Allen - Needs to have gallbladder removed. She was in a lot of pain last night and nearly went to the hospital. She has found a doctor she would like to get in contact with, so please pray that her doctor will give her a referral to him. (11/18)

Arlene Obert - She is learning how to walk again and is able to take “baby steps”. Please pray that she will be able to walk by November 27, the date the doctors have her scheduled to return home depending on her progress. (11/11)

Missions Requests

Dave & Betsy McCrorie (Canada)

Dave is recovering from a recent knee replacement surgery. He was told that recovery and rehab would be very painful and now that he is going through the process is inclined to agree; although, he does say that God has been very gracious to him in providing the relief he needs.

Please pray for the following:

- Speedy recovery and good success with the therapy.
- Sam Youusif, a church member, will be taking over the nursing home services during this time. This is Sam’s first time preaching and leading services.
- Another couple to come to Canada to minister alongside the McCrories at Crossway Baptist Church.

For more detail, please see the missionary prayer letters that are handed out at prayer time. The 3rd Quarter Missionary Prayer Bulletin is available at the Reception Center.
