General Requests and Praises

NEW/UPDATED

Linda Callison - Linda's dad, David Crymble, went to be with the Lord early this morning. Pray for the family. (4/5)

Milan and DeAnna Huba - Please pray for Hella Huba, Milan's mother. She is in a medically induced coma. (4/5)

Sharon Loller – Praise the Lord that Sharon's insurance approved the chemo treatment her doctor prescribed. Please continue to pray that the treatments will be effective. (4/5)

Sue Meyer - Sue had surgery to relieve a subdural hemorrhage. Right now she is on a ventilator and unconscious in a coma. The doctors are going to try to wake her tomorrow. (4/5)

Edna Phillips (Lois Slater's Mother) - Edna was hospitalized with symptoms of congestive heart failure. Pray for wisdom and energy as Lois is in Hannibal, Missouri, helping her. (4/5)

Jen Saylor - Pray for a Buddhist friend of Jen's who has heard the gospel several times. The friend has recently had a brain tumor reoccurrence. (4/5)

Sarah Slater - Sarah is on a missions trip in Nicaragua. Pray for safety and effectiveness. She will return on April 9th. (4/5)

Christine Shock - Chrissy is scheduled for a liver biopsy in two weeks. Pray that the results of the biopsy will be clear. (4/5)

Special Services - Pray for visitors and salvation decisions during our Fresh Start Sunday and Easter Sunday services. (4/5)

Linda Toole - Her lupus is acting up. She is home but is very weak. Please pray for strength and recovery. (4/5)

John Wulfing - John was able to give the gospel at his father's memorial service. Please pray for John's Uncle Charlie, Aunt Susan, and other relatives for whom John has spiritual concerns. John is planning to stay in Georgia for some time to help his mother settle in a new living situation. (4/5)

Rita Cipollo - Pray for Rita's brother, Anthony Roti, who is suffering from liver cancer. He has been given about two weeks to live. Tony appears to be open to the gospel. Please pray that he will be saved and that God will comfort his wife and other family members. (3/29)

Paula Pasqua - Paula is thankful for several opportunities the Lord has given her to share the gospel through Bible studies. Please pray for a new Bible study using "Perfect Peace" that will start next week. Pray also for some friends who contacted Paula over the internet and appear to be open to the gospel. (3/29)

Special Request

Baptist Church Planting Ministry - First State Baptist Church in Wilmington, Delaware, had a great first service this last Sunday with twenty-four from the community - four of them first-time visitors. (4/5)

Camp Joy - The DNR decision has been pushed back to May. Camp Joy is having a public Q&A meeting on May 6th. Pray that the Lord would remove any opposition. Pray also that the Lord would provide for the new septic system the camp is hoping to install. (4/5)

Sehested Family (Hunedoara, Romania) - The Sehesteds are thankful for the safe delivery of Ana Dudas to Roxana and Utu, a faithful couple in their church. Ana was about six weeks early. She was taken by helicopter to a hospital in a larger city. Pray for the Lord's grace for her parents. (4/5)

Bobby and Nadia Vallette - Pray for Nadia's interview at the embassy this Friday. The result of the interview will determine when the Vallettes can return to the USA on furlough. (4/5)

Sinclair Family (Cameroon, West Africa) - The Sinclairs ask us to pray that God would intervene and bring the current political unrest to a satisfactory conclusion. While they feel safe in the Lord's hands, they do not see any progress being made toward government functions (such as schools and legal offices) reopening or the internet being turned back on for their region. (3/8)
