SUNDAY ADULT BIBLE STUDIES

For the Bible Tells Me So (Jayson Deets, Teacher) Auditorium
 In this session, we will look at a variety of topics that believers are challenged with from a biblical perspective. Some expected topics include: Diluted Faith; In the Beginning; What Are the Fundamentals of the Faith; Matters of Life and Death; Planet Stewardship; Onward Christian Soldiers—the Christian and Gun Rights; Christians at Work; It’s So Confusing—A Biblical View of LGBT Issues; Parent Training; The Christian and Entertainment; The Believer and His Government; and The Church Social—A Biblical View of Online and Offline Social Interactions.

Family and Parenting (Josh Sanford, Teacher) Room 201
 The class will examine some key passages from God’s Word to help guide us as parents and families to fulfill God’s will for our homes.

Beatitudes for Chicagoland (Teresa Carrillo, Teacher) Room 209
 The Sermon on the Mount and particularly the Beatitudes are a much-loved portion of the Bible. Are these words truly applicable to our lives in the Chicago suburbs? What does it mean to be “poor in spirit”? How does one go about being a “peacemaker”? Aren’t some women just naturally merciful and kind? Learn and grow in the ladies class this summer as we study Matthew chapters 5-7.
