STUDIES IN FIRST CORINTHIANS

The Benefits of Singleness

1 Corinthians 7:25-35

God's plan is marriage for most
and singleness for some. Neither arrangement is inherently better
than the other.

1 Peter 3:7

“Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; ...”

God's plan is marriage for most
and singleness for some. Neither
arrangement is inherently better
than the other.

- 1. Marriage can complicate and amplify the acute pressures of life.
- 2. Marriage magnifies the sinfulness and weakness of the flesh.
- 3. Marriage can easily overshadow the eternal things of God.
- 4. Marriage divides our attention and can limit our service to God.

God's plan is marriage for most

Colossians 3:2

“Set your affection on things above,
not on things on the earth.”

- 1. Marriage can complicate and amplify the acute pressures of life.
- 2. Marriage magnifies the sinfulness and weakness of the flesh.
- 3. Marriage can easily overshadow the eternal things of God.
- 4. Marriage divides our attention and can limit our service to God.
