STUDIES IN FIRST CORINTHIANS

The Nature of Transformed Resurrection Bodies

1 Corinthians 15:35-49

- 1. It's foolish to deny the resurrection just because you can't explain it.
- 2. If God can give new life to a seed, then He can do the same for our bodies.

John 12:24

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.”

- 1. It's foolish to deny the resurrection just because you can't explain it.
- 2. If God can give new life to a seed, then He can do the same for our bodies.
- 3. The resurrection of the body involves transformation, but with continuity.

A. God intends different bodies for different purposes.

“natural” = *psuchikos

“spiritual” = *pneumatikos

- A. God intends different bodies for different purposes.
- B. The resurrection body is different in that it is intended for and animated by a different kind of life.
- C. The resurrected body of Jesus is the “prototype” of our resurrection.

Luke 24:39

“Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.”

- 1. It's foolish to deny the resurrection just because you can't explain it.
- 2. If God can give new life to a seed, then He can do the same for our bodies.
- 3. The resurrection of the body involves transformation, but with continuity.

1 John 3:2

“Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.”
