Learning to Get Along

Philippians 4:2-3

- 1. Division between individual believers hurts the whole body.
- 2. Resolving conflict is awkward, and our inclination is to avoid it.
- 3. The primary responsibility for reconciliation rests with those directly involved.

Matthew 18:15

“Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.”

Matthew 5:23-24

“Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee; 24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.”

- 4. Resolving conflict sometimes requires the help of a third party.
- 5. Even zealous, faithful Christians sometimes cause damage to relationships.
- 6. Resolution is essential for the sake of the Gospel.

Galatians 6:1

“Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.”
