

Biblical waiting is a confident,
disciplined, expectant, active,
and sometimes painful clinging to God.

The Benefits of Waiting on God

Acts 1:4-5

- 1. Waiting helps us focus on God and His plans, rather than our own.
- 2. Waiting promotes patient trust in God.
- 3. Waiting keeps us dependent on God, rather than ourselves.

-
- 4. Waiting reminds us that God is in control.
  - 5. Waiting cultivates gratitude and contentment.

- 1. Waiting helps us focus on God and His plans, rather than our own.
- 2. Waiting promotes patient trust in God.
- 3. Waiting keeps us dependent on God, rather than ourselves.
- 4. Waiting reminds us that God is in control.
- 5. Waiting cultivates gratitude and contentment.