

Remembering Jesus and His Sacrifice for Us

Luke 22:14-20

1. God's Word puts an emphasis on the priority of "remembering."

Hebrew: zakar

Greek: mnemoneuo, mimnesko, mnaomai, anamnesis

- 1. God's Word puts an emphasis on the priority of remembering.
- 2. God calls us to be participatory in our remembering.

Genesis 9:16

“And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth.”

Exodus 12:14

“And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.”

A large, round ceramic plate with a vibrant, multi-colored floral and geometric pattern around the edge and a solid blue border. The plate is set on a light-colored wooden surface. In the center of the plate lies a roasted lamb shank with a long, clean bone. Surrounding the shank are five small, round ceramic bowls, each containing a different ingredient: a piece of fresh parsley, a whole brown egg, a piece of raw radish, a small mound of ground meat, and a single leek. The plate has some faint, partially legible text on it, including "RADIS" and "LEEK".

A clear glass dish containing a generous amount of fresh, bright green parsley leaves, positioned to the right of the main plate.

A clear glass filled with water, positioned to the left of the main plate.

Exodus 13:8

“And thou shalt shew thy son in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the LORD did unto me when I came forth out of Egypt.”

- 1. God's Word puts an emphasis on the priority of remembering.
- 2. God calls us to be participatory in our remembering.
- 3. God calls us, as New Testament believers, to regularly reflect on the sacrifice of Jesus.
