

PSALMS

BOOK FOUR

Psalm 106 is intended to make us think more seriously about our sin, and therefore, more seriously and gratefully about our Savior.

“The history of God’s past is a record of continuous mercies, whereas the history of man’s past is a record of continuous sin.”

~ Alexander Maclaren

Grace That Is Greater Than All Our Sin

Psalm 106

The great depths of our sin and the still greater depths of God's grace and mercy should cause us to praise
Him and to look to Him for His continued grace in our lives.

1. We are stubborn, persistent sinners.

Isaiah 6:5

“Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.”

“A spiritual experience which is thoroughly flavored with a deep and bitter sense of sin is of great value to him that had it. It is terrible in the drinking, but it is most wholesome in the bowels, and in the whole of the after-life.”

~ C. H. Spurgeon

- 1. We are stubborn, persistent sinners.
  - A. Israel's sins at the time of the Exodus show us the depths of human sin.

1. We are stubborn, persistent sinners.

A. Israel's sins at the time of the Exodus show us the depths of human sin.

B. Israel's sins during their time in the wilderness show us the depths of human sin.

1. We are stubborn, persistent sinners.

A. Israel's sins at the time of the Exodus show us the depths of human sin.

B. Israel's sins during their time in the wilderness show us the depths of human sin.

C. Israel's sins after they entered the Promised Land show us the depths of human sin.

- 1. We are stubborn, persistent sinners.
- 2. God is gracious and merciful in the face of our sin.
- 3. We ought to praise Him and look for His continued grace and mercy in our lives.