the book of Acts

God, by His Spirit, leads and guides
His people as we listen to Him, choose to obey Him, and trust in Him to enable us to live according to His leading.

The Ways God Guides

Acts 16:1-10

- 1. God guides those who are serving, not those who are doing nothing.
 - 2. God can use even our own sinful failures to bring about His will for our lives.
 - 3. God guides using both open and closed doors.

- 3. God guides using both open and closed doors.
 - 4. Although God uses circumstances to guide us, we must be wise in order to discern God's intention through those circumstances.
 - 5. God's leading is both personal and communal.

6. God's guidance often comes gradually and unpredictably.

7. God rarely shows us the “big picture” from the start; He's looking for obedience even if we don't fully understand.

“Without Christ, not one step;
with Him, anywhere!”
